Monthly Newsletter

First I would like to thank Dennis and Cyndy Schaper for hosting this month's meeting at their house. It is always a fun time.

The weather was pretty nice for one weekend. I managed to get both cars out. Unfortunately we went back to winter last Sunday evening.

We do need to have a Brenengen car show committee meeting soon. I would like to propose Monday April 6th at 6:30 at Ardies Restaurant. I don't think that we need to include Don Brenengen at this one. We can meet with him at the next meeting. Committee members; please let me know as soon as possible whether you can attend this meeting. If Monday does not work, then I can do pretty much any day that week. I do have Blue Moon Catering supplying the food this year. While we probably will not share in the profits, there will be no issues with food service sanitation this year. We will charge an entry fee of five dollars which will hopefully make up the difference.

Judy and Claude talked about doing the April Ride n' Dine although nothing is set yet.

I will have to confirm that May 20th will be our Tech Talk at Brenengen Chevrolet. I will have to confirm that with Don Brenengen. Dennis if you could confirm that date with Barry, that would be great.

Also the ladies luncheon is April 17th.

- 3) March 22 March meeting at Dennis & Cyndy S. Home. Thank you for hosting.
- 4) RCC Car Show July 17th committee is starting to meet and plan for this year's show. Completing the advertisement is the most important item to complete now.
- 5) Brenengen Maintenance agreement has been completed. Invoice pricing on new corvette, 25% off cash & carry parts, $10 off oil change, Rewards program to save on repairs.

New Business:

- 1) Do we want to do more than one parade this year? The consensus was at least one more.

Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 6:37 PM by Mark S.

Respectfully submitted,

Ron Callender,
RCC Secretary
