President's Message

The March members meeting Progressive Diner was a great success! I would like to thank all the hosts and hostesses for the time and energy they spent making the evening very enjoyable.

Appetizers- Kathy Fontanini (Wonderful Variety!)

Dinner- Jim and Judy Rowley (Delicious Chicken!)

Desert- Mike and Pat Foster (Scrumptious and Mouth Watering Desert!)

Claude and Judy Mosely get the award for 1st to bring their car out for 2006.

I attended the God's Country Car Show at the LaCrosse Center on March 18th and members John and Anne Wilson had their car on display. The car looked great! I hope you got some well deserved votes. I would also like to acknowledge John and Anne for promoting LaCrosse River City Corvetts by displaying the club brochure.

Let's all hope Spring is here to stay, and we can get our cars out and start to have fun again!

REMINDER: April Ride and Dine will meet at Forest Hills (The old LaCrosse Country Club on Losey Blvd).

David Fontanini

Parade News Department

Attention Norwegians! The River City Corvette Club will be appearing in the May 21, 2006 (Sunday) Syttende Mai parade in Westby, Wisconsin. The parade starts at 1:30 p.m. and line-up will be at 12:30 pm at the Westby Elementary and Middle Schools (enter via Maple Street or South Street). Bring along your silly hats and waving gloves for this event!

Earlier on the same day, the festival usually offers a car show on the local ball field. Look for more information in next month's newsletter about the car show.

What: Syttende Mai Parade

Where: Westby, Wisconsin

When: Sunday, May 21, 2006 - line up is at 12:30 pm

Governor's Report - March 2006

As the year goes we are planning one event that is sanctioned by NCCC, on August 20, 2006. The event is our Autocross which we will all need to help pull it off in a fine fashion.

As of now I have four event masters as follows:

- Dave Fontanini
- Tom Stibbe
- John Gesslein
- Ron Parker (morning event)

If you are looking for other Corvette related events, see our activities section or go to www.mwregion.com web site.

As I receive flyers by Email I will forward them.

The idea of another joint Poker Rally is still being thought about and the other clubs will be contacted.

RCC Governor,
Claude Mosley
